Imagine hanging on a rock face, with nothing between you and the ground hundreds of meters below. For Alex Winter this is just another normal(正常的)day. I visited him at his home in Fresno, California.

Craig: When did you first become interested in rock climbing?

Alex: Well, Fresno's not far from Yosemite National Park in California. That's one of the best places for climbing in the world. Both my parents love rock climbing, and I started learning the basics(基础)at a very early age.

Craig: ?

Alex: I've had a few falls, but the ropes have saved my life every time. If you lose your hold, the ropes are fixed to the rock and they take your weight.

Craig: For you, what's the best thing about rock climbing?

I saved the grain (谷物) carefully and finally had enough to plant. I built a wall around my garden to keep the wild goats away.

Then when my crop bore its fruit, the birds discovered it. The birds were not afraid of my dog at all. I shot them but as soon as I walked away. They returned. At last, I killed some birds and hung them among the crop, hoping they would serve as the scarecrows, which turned out to be successful. By harvest time (收获季节), I had nearly two bushels of rice and two and a half bushels of wheat.

With my new grain to store (储存), I found a new problem. The fine grain ran through my baskets. It took me nearly two months to form and dry two ugly pots (锅)- one for rice and one for wheat.

Next I made a clay oven and some other tools from hard wood and cloth to bake (烘烤) bread. I made and baked bread in my oven. I spent the third year on the island in farming and baking.

Soon after that, I began to think of my days sailing in a tidy boat with Xury. I wished to have a boat and explore (探索) the island by sea.

I tried to turn over the ship's boat that I had seen washed up, but failed. I still made a decision to have a boat. So I chose a strong tree and spent weeks cutting it down. Then it took me months to turn it from tree to boat.

When it was time to launch, I realized I had made my boat too far from the nearest stream (溪流). The boat was far too heavy for me to move. I tried bringing the water to the boat instead of the boat to the water. I soon saw it would take me twenty years to continue working.

I celebrated my fourth year on the island with two boats, but I was no closer to a sea journey.

Have we ever thought what we read for, information or skills? How do we feel when we read, excited or upset? We read word by word aloud and think about them. Is that enough? I think reading is more than pronouncing or thinking about words. Recently Readers, a very popular TV program, is staged in the form of reading.

Dong Qing works as both a hostess and a producer. Readers hopes to tell us what the world is and it takes us to see the beautiful world by reading. The show has invited some influential guests who have rich experiences and touching stories, like Ni Ping, Wang Yuan from TFBOYS and Yao Chen.

“Reading touches people's hearts” is the slogan (口号) of Readers. What it wants to show isn't reading skills but real feelings. They are what touches the audience most. “Readers has become a turning point in my career in hosting and the program has brought me quite a huge challenge.” said Dong Qing.
