(A)根据短文内容判断句子正误, 正确的在括号内写“T”, 错误的写“F”。

Everyone wants to have good manners, but it is not easy. We must care about everything in life. There is something we should know.

First, say “hello” to people you meet, not only to teachers, but also to your friends and your classmates, and even your neighbours. Second, help others as much as you can. Then everybody will like you. Third, don’t laugh at others. That will be impolite and hurt them. Fourth, never ask others about their personal information(个人信息). If others have something that they can’t say, they will be very embarrassed.

Good manners make things easier. They can help people to get on well with each other. When you are nice to people, they will be nice to you.

1. Everyone wants to have good manners, but it is not so easy.
2. We shouldn’t say “hello” to our neighbours.
3. Laughing at others is OK.
4. We shouldn’t ask others about their personal information.
5. Good manners can help people to get on well with each other.
