78-year-old Hugh Britain from Canada is now a retired (退休的) teacher. When he was a school teacher, he asked his Grade 6 students to keep a diary for a week as a 21 practice.

After the students finished, Huge never 22 the diaries because they were the students' top secrets (秘密). However, he kept (保留) them and years later he could 23 them back to his students. Then they could look back at 24 they were like at the age of 12.

Hugh got most of the diaries back to their "writers", 25 he still had 26 diaries with him and couldn't find their "writers". Last month, after keeping them for 43 years, Hugh decided (决定) to give it one more 26, so he posted (发帖子) pictures of the diaries on the Internet. To find the "writers" more easily, the 27 of the students were also on the diaries.

Austin Hutton, one of Hugh's students, learned about the post from his mother. He said he was very 28 when he got the diary. Inside, he talked about his plan for buying a new bike and playing sport with his friends. "I'm so happy to get 29 after 43 years. He is really a great teacher. I will 30 him in my whole life," said Austin.

One morning, Mrs. Darling found some leaves on the bedroom floor. "How did they get here?" she asked the children.

Wendy answered. "Peter left them." When Mrs. Darling asked Wendy to tell her more about Peter, Wendy talked about his visits.

Mrs. Darling thought Wendy was only talking about her dreams. The bedroom was on the third floor. How could anyone come in through (通过) a window? This story couldn't be real (真实的). But the leaves on the floor were surely real. Ms. Darling looked at them carefully. They were special leaves, and you couldn't find them anywhere in the UK.

The next evening, Mrs. Darling gave her children a shower and put them into bed. Then she sang to Wendy, John, and Michael, until (直到) they all fell asleep. She, too, soon fell asleep.

Suddenly (突然), the bedroom window was open. A boy dressed in the same leaves came in, lightly down the floor. After him was a strange light as big as someone's hand. Seeing him, Mrs. Darling let out a cry. She recognized him. He was Peter Pan.

Just then, Nana came back home and ran into the bedroom, barking (吠). She shouted at Peter, who jumped up to the window and ran away. Mrs. Darling ran outside and down the street to look for Peter. But all she saw was a shooting star (流星) in the sky.

My dear friends,

I'm writing to invite you to my new house on May 1st. It isn't just any day-it's my birthday. My parents are going to have a birthday party at 14:00 p.m. and I hope you can come. It must be fun with lots of food, drinks and interesting games.

Together with this letter is a map of how to get to our house. Take the road in front of the station. Follow it and you'll see a chicken farm. Don't make any turns. Keep going and you'll see a bridge. Cross the bridge and there will be a big tree on your left. Walk past the tree, take the first turning on your right, and then walk straight on. My house is at the end of the road.

Yours,

Amy
